

International
Mycological
Association

The Mycological Society of Japan

AMC2019 Pre-Congress Workshop (forenotice)

Hands-on Workshop

Identification of Mitosporic fungi under a Microscope

This “Hands-on Workshop” focuses on the identification of mitosporic fungi formed on the medium. You may be learnt the identification methods with the conidiogeneses observing under the microscope. This technique is a classical but it is still useful for the various situation in the field of Mycology.

Instructor: Dr. Katsuhiko Ando

Language of Instruction: English

Location: Graduate school of Bioresources, Mie University, Kurima-machiya 1577, Tsu, Mie, Japan

Course fee: JPY1,000. (Coffee breaks, the Course book and insurance are included. Lunches and accommodation excluded)

Capacity: 30 persons

Conditions of participation; Applicants should be:

- a participant of AMC2019.
- a mycologist under the age of 35.
- having experiences in the handling microscopes.

Application: it will open January 10

*If the limit is exceeded by the applicant, a selection considering the diversity of participants will be given to those.